WESTPORT RESOURCES MANAGEMENT SELECTS JEFFREY SARGENT AS CHIEF COMPLIANCE OFFICER

WESTPORT, CT -- Westport Resources Management, Inc., a leading financial advisor serving individuals, families, municipalities and institutions around the world, announced today it has selected Jeffrey Sargent to be its Chief Compliance Officer. He will be responsible for the firm's compliance with federal regulations governing operations.

"Compliance continues to be more complex in the financial services industry. With the recent events in the financial markets and more regulation expected shortly, we needed a person with strong compliance experience. Jeff is that person and brings a wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm to the position," said John Adams Vaccaro, Westport Resources Management's Founder and Chief Executive Officer.

"I'm excited to join Westport Resources because of the firm's 23-year history of diverse service to its clients and its investment acumen. I'm looking forward to helping the company navigate through the maze of compliance issues that are continually changing," said Mr. Sargent, who has 16 years in the investment management industry.

Prior to joining Westport Resources, Mr. Sargent, 44, served as Chief Compliance Officer of Robotti & Company, LLC, in New York, an investment advisory firm with $350 million assets under management, where he was responsible for drafting, updating and implementing all firm policies with regard to compliance.

Headquartered in Westport, CT, Westport Resources Management, Inc. was founded in 1986 by Chief Executive Officer John Adams Vaccaro. Maintaining stable growth over its 23-year history, Westport Resources provides wealth management services to individuals, families, institutions and municipalities empowering them to realize their visions, optimize their resources and proactively manage risk through its customized innovative solutions, independent research, dynamic planning, meaningful reporting and passionate client service.
